Additional Terms and Conditions

Additional Terms and Conditions for Microsoft's Subscriptions

The following additional terms and conditions apply to Your purchase of Microsoft's ("Vendor") cloud service and software subscriptions available under Lanmark's Microsoft CSP Program, excluding Microsoft Azure ("Services") and to the use of such Services by You. These terms and conditions are in addition to other terms you agree to through the Lanmark Cloud Marketplace (the "Site" <https://cloud.lanmark.com> or <https://cloudstore.lanmark.com>), including but not limited to the Lanmark General Terms of Service, acceptable use policy, and other terms.

1 Term and Termination

Services start once provisioned through the marketplace. You may cancel the Services through the marketplace so long as no Service commitments are active hereunder (i.e. You or one or more of Your customers are employing any active Services). You may only terminate the Service if there are no existing term commitments for Services. If You terminate use of a Service prior to the expiration of the term commitment for the selected service, You will remain responsible to Lanmark for all remaining and accrued charges for such Service pursuant to the selected term commitment.

Services are available for minimum commitment of one year. Services will auto renew for an additional one year, unless You cancel the Services prior to the expiration of the term commitment for the selected Service.

2 Fees and Taxes

You agree to pay the fees and charges for the Services as outlined in the registration process and that appear on the Site, as may be amended from time to time. If You exceed the usage limits applicable to the Service subscription, You agree to pay for the fees and charges for such over usage. For any extension of a subscription term or the provisioning of a Service upgrade, the then-current price will apply, unless otherwise mutually agreed in writing by You and Lanmark. Lanmark, may, from time to time in its sole discretion, change the fees it charges for the Service. Any increase in the fees will take effect at the beginning of the new subscription term. Lanmark will notify You of any such changes by updating the Site or sending notice by e-mail or regular mail.

3 Terms of Sale and Terms of Use

All purchases are subject to the sales terms set forth in the Lanmark General Terms and Conditions, as well as service setup information set forth in the Site, including but not limited to pricing (where applicable). For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding the presence or acceptance by Lanmark of Your order, such shall be for administrative purposes only and the parties agree that the governing terms and conditions shall be those set forth in the Lanmark General Terms of Service unless otherwise agreed to in writing by Lanmark and You. The Services are provided by Vendor.

All terms of use and/or service ("Terms of Use") are established by Vendor. The Terms of Use include, without limitation, the Microsoft Cloud Agreement, which is available here: <https://msdn.microsoft.com/en-us/partner-center/agreements>. The Microsoft Cloud Agreement shall apply to Your use of the Services.

Lanmark may modify these terms and conditions at any time. You must regularly monitor the Site for any such modifications. The modified terms and conditions will be effective immediately after it is posted on the Site. Your purchase and use of the Services after any such modification will be deemed acceptance of such modification.
